

EXTRACURRICULAR

It is with great pride and excitement, that Dustin Johnson will be wearing Extracurricular for the 2023 PGA Championship at Oak Hills East. One of the most recognizable names in golf, the two-time major champion will be coming into this weekend's tournament riding high after securing a victory at last weekend's LIV Golf Invitational Tulsa.

"We are beyond thrilled that DJ will be representing us during the PGA Championship. I don't think there's an athlete out there who better embodies the ethos of our brand, and to have him wearing Extracurricular on such a big stage, I mean, it's as incredible an opportunity as it is a genuine honor."
- Chris Rosaasen, Founder

DJ will wear new subtle prints and stripes with a surprising lavender print to kick off the PGA Championship week. Dustin and Extracurricular have planned his scripting for each tournament day. He will wear the lavender Notch Polo on Thursday, the bright white Flag Polo on Friday, the baby blue Stripe Staple Polo on Saturday, and Notch Polo in bright white and navy on Championship Sunday.
